

Feeling overwhelmed by too much stuff or worried about becoming a hoarder?

Do you want to 'declutter' and get organised but just don't know where - or how - to start?

You might find your hobbies or shopping have taken over or your files need ordering and systems put in place. At Clutterbusters we know how to get you sorted. Our experienced and understanding team will come alongside you to help you make those difficult decisions about what to keep and what can go.

We work empathetically with everyone from business and tradespeople whose home office is taking over to collectors and clinical hoarders.

- Caring, discreet, non-judgmental team. We treat all our clients with respect and compassion.
- Help with selling, gifting and rehoming of belongings. We never take a commission on the sale of your goods.
- Setting up of processes and systems going forward to help you stay 'decluttered'.
- We use the same team members as Elderly Assist and Moving Assist.

Please visit www.nocowboys.co.nz and search for Elderly Assist to see what our customers say about our service.
